I-NETT Wins Technology Industry's Top Award

Technology Assurance Group and Intermedia Recognize I-NETT for Superior Performance

LOS ANGELES/VENTURA/ORANGE COUNTY/SAN DIEGO — April 17, 2023 — I-NETT, a leading managed technology services provider, announced today that the company received Technology Assurance Group's top award at the 22nd Annual TAG Convention held in Charleston, SC. Technology Assurance Group (TAG), an organization of leading managed technology services providers in the United States and Canada representing $800 million in annual products and services, selected I-NETT as the winner of the Outstanding Economic & Customer Satisfaction Award. I-NETT received the recognition during an awards ceremony attended by TAG's Member companies and leading technology manufacturers.

The industry holds this award in the highest regard and is only given out once per year. Winners are selected based on their exceptional economic performance and superior customer satisfaction. "When you place the customers' needs ahead of your own it's incredible how quickly profits come. By focusing on strong customer service and consistently exceeding our customers' expectations, we have developed quite a reputation in the community," said Dale Stein, CEO of I-NETT. "When our customers can rely on us to be their trusted technology advisor, we experience unfaltering customer loyalty." "I-NETT is dedicated to increasing their customers' profitability, enhancing their employees' productivity and giving them a competitive advantage through the utilization of technology," said Brian Suerth, President of Technology Assurance Group. "Stein leads a team that is committed to the success of its customers, and his customers know this. That's exactly why they keep coming back." Dale Stein, CEO of I-NETT, accepted the award in Charleston.
